

Sign Mime Workshop
For Interpreters, ASL Teachers
and Deaf Community Members
With Patrick "Mr. Shineyhead" Fischer
Friday and Saturday, June 20-21, 2008
Friday: 5:45 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Saturday: 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

This workshop will provide an instructive, challenging and captivating hands-on adventure in language exploration: performance skills, body gestures, classifiers, visual space, abstract concepts and more. Sign Mime uses non-conventional signs and is all mimed. Inspirations to create Sign Mime stories come from movies, cartoons, scripts, and your own imagination. This work will benefit all who use American Sign Language and would like to continue to explore its nuances and "step away from the English".

Workshop will be presented in ASL. Space limited to 20 participants.

Patrick Fischer is from several generations of fine artists and actors in Europe and has extensive experience in all things related to theatre and art. Patrick has been involved in a variety of artistic positions (artist, board member, actor, director, producer and consultant), as well as been performed in a variety of performance genres (storytelling, poetry, emcee, skits, and comedy). Patrick launched his theatrical business in 2005 as a way to provide services to those who want to learn more about theatre through deaf eyes. When not "working" in theatre, Patrick teaches ASL and has ASLTA certification. Patrick is also a professional artist and owner of a freelance design business, "Infinity Design".
